Dear Danny Lucas

Congratulations on making the Skills Pledge

Congratulations on the leadership you have shown in making the Skills Pledge. This public commitment to support all your employees to develop their basic skills, and enable them to work towards relevant, valuable qualifications, will contribute towards making the nation's workforce world leaders in skills.

I am delighted to acknowledge your commitment by enclosing your Skills Pledge certificate. Please can you ensure that the certificate is signed by the person named. Once signed we hope the certificate will be displayed with pride within your organisation.

The Skills Pledge is a partnership between the Government and your business and opens the door to services such as Train to Gain and Apprenticeships. As you are aware, the purpose of the Skills Pledge is to ensure that all your staff are skilled, competent and able to make a full contribution to the success of your organisation. To find out more, or to access help to identify the right training and funding to meet your future business needs talk to your Skills Broker or log onto <http://inourhands.lsc.gov.uk/index.html>

Should you have any queries about the certificate, require additional copies, or have any other comments then please email skillspledge@lsc.gov.uk or phone our Skills Pledge Advisers on 0800 015 55 45. Written correspondence should be made for the attention of the Skills Pledge Manager, at the address below.

Once again, many congratulations.

Yours sincerely

Mark Haysom CBE
Chief Executive
